Lawyers Say F.B.I. Eavesdropped on Riot Suspects

outside the 15th floor office it." with a radio transmitter.

strators were.

mcident.

Mr. Lefcourt and Mr. Weinglass said that a motion would be filed in Chicago Federal Court today charging the F.B.I.
with eavesdropping and demanding that a "cease and desist" order be issued against
"all further bugging, wiretapping and surveillance"

he was trying to duck around the corridor corner."

Mr. Kunstler said that he and all the other lawyers for the eight defendants were joining in the motion to be filed today.

Salve assertion that the equipment
was merely a device to report ping and surveillance.

hand.

Mr. Hill denied yesterday ping devices. In fact, when that he had eavesdropped on Kunstler [William B. Kunstler, the lawyer-client conference another attorney for the debut conceded that he had been fense] saw it he said 'Oh, forget outside the 15th floor office it."

with a radio transmitter.

"I had no tap eequipment," vesterday. "I never said anyMr. Hill said. "It was just a thing like that," the lawyer asradio that I used to let my ofserted. "In fact, I was coming fice know where the demonout of the conference room strators were." But Mr. Kunstler denied this strators were."

Mr. Hill said he could make no further comment on the as guilty as that agent when incident.

Mr. Hill said he could make he was trying to duck around the was trying to ping and surveillance" was merely a device to report.

The lawyers added that they on the whereabouts of the dewould ask United States Atfendants. He said that agents would ask United States At-fendants. He said that agents torney Thomas Foran to press with walkie-talkies were "all criminal charges "against any over the place, following us all and all F.B.I. agents involved." day" but that Mr. Hill's device But Mr. Foran said he did was "much bigger and much not consider the charges to be different than all the others we serious.

"The agent had no According to Mr. Leffcourt Mr.

"The agent had no According to Mr. Lefcourt, Mr. eavesdropping equipment," he Weinglass and Mr. Kunstler, the said in a telephone interview lawyers and clients were in a

The Federal Bureau of Investigation was accused yesterday of eavesdropping on a conference in the United States Attorney's office discussing tray between lawyers and eight defendants under indictment for conspiracy to incite a riot at the Democratic National Convention in August.

The charges were made by agents were "checking on the F.B.I. The charges were made by agents were "checking on the F.B.I. The charges were made by agents were "checking on the rollowed by Mr. Lefcourt and Leonard I. Weinglass, attorneys for some of the defendants of the defendants walked out the defendants and that Mr. Hill later came of the defendants, walked out the door defendants and that Mr. Hill list the fell and the defendants and that Mr. Hill list the fell and the defendants and that Mr. Hill list of the defendants and that Mr. Hill list of the door defendants and that Mr. Hill list of the door defendants and that Mr. Hill list of the door defendants and that Mr. Hill list of the door defendants and that Mr. Hill list o

By SIDNEY E. ZION yesterday. "The agent was conference room some 100 feet the incident, with Mr. Lefcourt The Federal Bureau of In-charged by his superiors with from the United States At-shouting angrilly that the F.B.I.

agent, David Hill, trying to "get complained about the incident, away" from the conference room with a transmitter in his equipment to them and I showe

in Chicago

John R. Froines, Lee Weiner, David T. Dellinger, Hayden, Jerry C. Rubin and Abbott H. (Abbie) Hoffman

Travel Restrictions Lifted

CHICAGO, April 10 (UPI)-The Government reversed its position today and agreed to lift travel restrictions on the eight defendants.

United States District Judge Julius J. Hoffman signed the Government order. It allows the defendants to travel within the continental limits of the United States and Puerto Rico on condition they report their itine-raries to the United States Attorney.